

Can the Swiss Guard fill the Virginia General Assembly chairs?

A): Yes

B): No

The Swiss Guard is a military corps that serves as the personal bodyguards of the Pope.

$\Delta p = 0.17$

They are known for their distinctive uniforms and ceremonial duties.

$\Delta p = -0.13$

The Virginia General Assembly is the legislative body of the state of Virginia, composed of the House of Delegates and the Senate.

$\Delta p = 0.12$

The Swiss Guard is not a legislative body, and they do not have the authority to fill chairs in the Virginia General Assembly.

$\Delta p = 0.20$